COLLEGE OF
PSYCHOLOGY & COUNSELING

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

- ▶ Students will be able to demonstrate essential knowledge of systemic theory and the principles of marriage and family therapy, related to clinical case conceptualization, diagnosis, intervention, and the use of community mental health resources and, to write and articulate their personal theoretical model for therapy.
- ▶ Students will be able to demonstrate skills that reflect high standards of professionalism and commitment to ethical and professional behavior consistent with the standards of marriage and family therapy and Christian principles.
- ▶ Students will be able to demonstrate clinical skill and the ability to apply effective therapeutic techniques to meet the diverse needs of individuals, couples and families.
- ▶ Students will be able to conduct and evaluate research to ensure high standards of therapeutic application and contribute to the field of marriage and family therapy.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

With a doctorate in Marriage & Family Therapy, you can follow career paths that branch out beyond what a Master's degree alone might afford you. Not only would you engage in clinical work but you would also find opportunities in higher education and administration that would take your career to a whole new level. If you enroll in HIU's DMFT program, you would earn your M.A. in Marriage & Family Therapy along the way, allowing you to begin earning income with clinical work while you complete the requirements for your doctorate degree.

I could not have picked a better program. From my professors I learned so much in the classroom about therapy, and even more about life. The professors are kind, empathetic and your biggest cheerleaders to get you across the finish line. The classes teach you all the tangible skills and knowledge to prepare you to be the best therapist you can be.
