All Non-HIU students applying for housing in the Hope International University (HIU) residence halls are asked to obtain a character reference. We ask that the reference form be completed by a pastoral staff member or church leader who knows the student well and would be familiar with the student's current spiritual life. All information will be kept confidential.

_____ is applying to live on campus at HIU and has asked you to fill out a reference form. The college experience can be a powerful time of growth and development. HIU is committed to providing an on campus experience where residents are challenged and supported academically, socially, and spiritually. Your open and honest responses will help HIU create a God-centered community.

I understand this letter or evaluation is to be received and maintained in confidence by Hope International University. My signature below indicates that I waive any and all rights I have to access this evaluation.
