Meal Plan Overview: Hope International University is committed to building a sense of community around great food and fellowship, in a comfortable and welcoming environment. We offer students a variety of choices in two locations and provide high quality cuisine that is both authentic and healthy. All students living on campus are required to have a meal plan. Please complete the information found below if you have restrictions that may affect your meal plan. All meal plan accommodations are approved by the Vice President of Student Affairs.

Completing this form is the first step in the meal plan accommodation process. Upon completion of the student section of this form, please attach this form to an email to the Vice President of Student Affairs in order to schedule a face-to-face meeting.
